The Matisse is an expressive design balancing structure and grace to create serenity. The home office is tucked behind double doors for privacy. Store file cabinets and printer paper in the closet for a sleek, Zoom meeting ready look. No need for a home office? A yoga mat, plants and essential oils are all you need to get your Chaturanga on. Head out to your contemporary kitchen for a snack. The basil is thriving now that you've placed it in the dining room window. Your spacious game room serves many purposes throughout the day, including a homework center or a cozy den. Everyone can enjoy popcorn and a movie in the media room before it's time to say good night.
